Welcome Leatherhead Cricket Club, our visitors for today's game.

Leatherhead Cricket Club was officially formed in 1850.

The club is fortunate to have preserved the original scorebooks as far back as 1892 and an unbroken sequence of minute books from 1906 to 1972. These not only throw light on the history of the club but also an insight into the changing social scene over that period.

There is plenty of evidence of cricket being played in the area before 1850. The earliest mention of local cricket was in Dorking in 1730. In 1840 Dorking's fixture list included a Leatherhead Match.

Lord Alverston's & C.W.Alcock in their massive Surrey Cricket: Its History & Associations (1902) attests to the popularity of the game, often between scratch teams in the villages and towns of old Surrey. There is reference to a match played at Leatherhead in August 1843 between West Surrey and Royal Clarence at which plans for a revived Surrey County Cricket Club were restarted.

There are a few copies of the Millennium Booklet and the 161 years cricket at Leatherhead at the club - in it are listed a few 'lasts'.

- ◇ Last man out - David Gange
- ◇ Last 50 - Matt Baker
- ◇ Last Duck - Jonathon Symes
- ◇ Last run of the Century - Anthony Joblin
- ◇ Last wicket taken - Anthony Joblin
- ◇ Last No-Ball - Jonathon Symes
- ◇ Last catch dropped - Richard Slinn
- ◇ Last catch dropped off - Clive Huggins
- ◇ Last wide bowled by - Clive Huggins
- ◇ Last ball bowled by - Clive Huggins

There are many of the old score books, minute books and photographs around the clubhouse.

Saturday 15th May 2021

Chipstead Walcountians & Coulsdon CC 1st XI v Sutton CC 1st XI Surrey Championship 1st Division (1st XIs) 12.00pm start.

Match abandoned due to adverse weather conditions: it simply chucked it down!

Remarkably, despite overnight and early morning rain, Saturday's league fixture started on time at 12.00pm. After taking a good look at prevailing conditions, the umpires deemed the wicket and the outfield fit for play. Although the general forecast was unfavourable, there was no rain around at the time. CW&C skipper, Nick Woods, won the toss and given the greenish strip, unsurprisingly, elected to field.

Sutton skip, Luke Smith, and Sam Seadon opened the innings as ominously, heavy clouds appeared to the west. Off the first ball of the day, bowled by Michael Bradley, Smith survived a confident appeal for caught behind by what sounded like all eleven of the CW&C players. Not out! Bradley was bowling tidily and eventually entrapped Smith, LBW for 5-runs off 18 balls.

With the score standing 11 for 1, Seadon was joined at the crease by Josh Blake. After dealing sensibly with Bradley, (9-5-19-1) the pair seized the initiative and forged a carefully constructed stand of 75-runs before the rains came and forced everyone to run for cover, whatever form that cover legally took! The score at the time, 1.30pm, stood at 86-1 off 19.4-overs; Seadon 60 not out off, 67-balls, and Blake 14 not out, off 34-balls.

Attempts were made a couple of times to get play on again, but two very heavy downpours saw to it that the abandonment was inevitable, with both clubs awarded 5-points.
