AJ Fordham Surrey Championship review: Week 15

Richard Spillers reports briefly on the main Surrey Championship 1st Division action.

An exciting climax to the promotion race in Division One sees Malden Wanderers top by 17 points, although they had a scare at Beddington before finally winning by eight runs.

Rafeh Jafri's 68no dragged Wanderers up to 224-6 from 50 overs, Michael Ruffell's unbeaten 75 keeping the hosts interested into the final over.

Sutton stay second despite going down by eight runs in a feisty encounter at Valley End, where they failed to overhaul the home side's 158 all out, former Gloucestershire left-arm spinner Ed Young claiming 3-31.

That leaves them only 19 points in front of Spencer, who hammered strugglers Chipstead Coulsdon & Walcountians by 145 runs after Abid Jafri (4-40) and Hugo Darby (3-27) dismissed CCW for 129.

And another five points behind – but with the top two still to play, starting with Wanderers on Saturday – lie Guildford. They bowled out depleted Leatherhead for 103, Tom Humphreys (35no) supervising the runs being knocked off in 13 overs for a seven-wicket victory.

Beddington Cricket Club History

Beddington Cricket Club was founded in the beautiful and extensive surrounds of Beddington Park in 1863 by the Rector of Beddington, Canon Bridges. Beddington soon gained a reputation as one of leading clubs in Surrey and attracted the great players of the era such as Dr W.G.Grace and Jack Hobbs into playing there.

There have been a number of famous first class cricketers who have played for Beddington including: Peter Loader (13 tests for England), Mike Murray (ex MCC President), John Hall and Arnold Long. Along with others, these players were responsible for Beddington winning the London Club Cricket Championship in 1952 and 1962, therefore becoming the top club in London.

As one of the founding members of the Surrey Championship in 1968, we are very proud of our history and continue to look towards the future for success. Gary Butcher, Rupesh Amin and most recently Ryan Cummins have kept up Beddington's tradition of producing first class cricketers.

Beddington's Saturday league sides ply their trade in the Surrey Championship, boasting an impressive 5 competitive league sides. The current 1st XI gained promotion to the ECB Premier Division in 2014 and survived relegation in a nervy end to the 2015 season.

Beddington also have a strong Sunday contingent. A Sunday XI who play in the 40-over coloured clothing Surrey Trust League. We also put out 2 Sunday friendly sides, who play a full fixture list every weekend of the season; and who have also been known to play into October!

Beddington is a family spirited club with a whole host of generations signed up as members. We pride ourselves on our reputation as being a community club with a strong social background to go along with the playing side.

The club is very proud of our Colts setup; and we present many Summer Festivals, thanks to our fantastic facilities and volunteers. During the Summer, there is not a Friday night where there isn't an abundance of young players training.

For a full history of the club please visit: www.beddingtonhistory.wordpress.com A site researched and constructed by our members over several years.

A warm Sutton Cricket Club welcome to all at Cheam Road today for this AJ Fordham Surrey Championship 1st Division Round 16 fixture. We trust you enjoy your visit.

Special greetings also to our visitors today, Beddington Cricket Club. An exciting match is almost always guaranteed when we meet our near neighbours from Beddington Park. Hopefully today is no exception!

Sutton's 1st Division title hopes were dealt a severe blow last Saturday, suffering defeat by 8 runs at the hands of Valley End. It was a strangely abject display exhibiting a loss of the sharpness clearly shown in five consecutive wins following the shock defeat by Stoke D'Abernon in early June.

Promotion is now the focus, given winning the title took a massive knock with last weekend's result. Nevertheless, top spot is not out of reach as there are some significant divisional fixtures still to play in the final three rounds of the competition. These games could influence the final standings substantially.

GOOD LUCK TO ALL OUR XI's PLAYING THIS WEEKEND; AND TO THOSE NON-PLAYING MEMBERS, WE TRUST YOU ENJOY YOUR CRICKET VIEWING TODAY!
